

3. Complete the sentences with the verbs in the correct form.

call beat face cry take hit keep make pull skate

1. There's nothing to be done but the music.
2. I'm too tired to think about our strategies. Let's it a day.
3. Do you think she the roof if she finds out about it?
4. The time has come the bull by the horns.
5. Could you it under your hat, please?
6. I'm happy she her socks up last week.
7. Why are you about the bush now? Tell me what you want.
8. Instead of a mountain out of a molehill, get down to work.
9. A lot of people on thin ice, but they succeed anyway.
10. Have you ever over spilt milk?

4. Put the words in the brackets in the correct form.

1. There's no between those politicians. (AGREE)
2. It's advisable not to approach this land if you're of spiders. (FEAR)
3. What's the age in your country? (RETIRE)
4. If your parents learn that you cheated in the exam, they'll be (FURY)
5. Mrs Flower couldn't keep the out of her voice. (AMAZE).
6. How could you be so Are you going or not? (DECISION)
7. A few students have had great to comprehend this formula. (DIFFICULT)
8. Do you happen to know of this room? Is it five or six metres? (HIGH)
9. I can't believe that they live in abject (POOR).
10. His boss is a very person in town. (INFLUENCE)
11. Out of sheer we got interested in origami. (BORED)
12. Earning a lot of money is not of big to me. (IMPORTANT)
13. Unfortunately, the result of the test is (PREDICT).
14. This island is still It's very wild. (INHABIT)
15. though Rachel may seem to be, she's rather silly. (RELY)