

2. Complete the sentences with the new expressions from the survey.

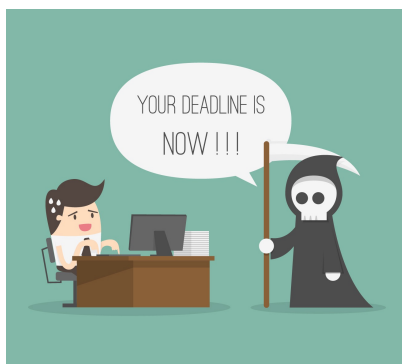

John was an up-and-coming young employee with a attitude to life.

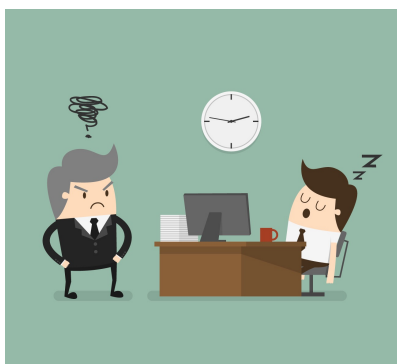

He learned how to make a lot of money for his corporation.

However, after a few months he didn't feel largely due to unsociable hours.

Poor John was constantly carrying out a of ambitious projects.

One day he was so weary that he decided to

He got the sack and had to face a prospect of unemployment.

3. Complete the sentences using the given word so that they have a similar meaning to the words in italics. You must use between two and five words.

1. He's been off work for two weeks, but he is getting better now. MEND
2. You must be very tired after working all day. FEET
3. My uncle is sixty, but he is in very good physical condition. FIDDLE
4. You look really sick. Why don't you lie down on the bed? WARMED
5. People shouldn't refuse to talk about their emotions. BOTTLE
6. Emma is in an unhappy mood. What's eating her? SORTS
7. Taking up yoga has given me new energy and enthusiasm. LEASE
8. We've been shopping all day. We're extremely tired. DROP
9. His doctor gave him a report that says he's healthy. He can start his work soon. CLEAN
10. Chubbiness seems a common feature in the family. RUN